

CHILDREN'S AFTERNOON TEA

St George's Cross - Battenberg

A British classic with a patriotic London twist. Battenberg has long been associated with British baking and the Victorian era, making it a natural addition to a celebration of British afternoon tea.

Victoria Sponge · Red Buttercream · Sugar Paste

Allergens: Gluten, Egg, Dairy

The Apple - Yoghurt Mousse Galette

A refined interpretation of the traditional British teatime sweet, combining the familiar flavour of English apples with the elegance of modern London patisserie.

Apple · Yoghurt · Lime · Chocolate

Allergens: Dairy, Soya

1840 - Victoria Sponge

When afternoon tea became fashionable, popularised by Anna Maria Russell, Duchess of Bedford and friend of Queen Victoria, the Queen's fondness for simple sponge cake with jam and cream helped establish the Victoria Sponge as a quintessential British teatime classic.

Vanilla · Raspberry · Cream

Allergens: Gluten, Egg, Dairy

THE DILLY
1908

SCONES

Plain Scone

Served with Strawberry Jam & Clotted Cream

SANDWICHES

Coronation Chicken Wrap

Allergens: Gluten, Mustard, Soya, Sulphites, Egg

Or

Butternut Squash & Caramelised Onion on White Bread

Allergens: Lupin, Soya, Mustard, Sesame

Red Leicester & Egg Mayo on Brioche Bread

Allergens: Gluten, Egg, Mustard, Dairy

Grated Beetroot & Vegan Feta on Onion Bread

Allergens: Gluten, Nuts, Soya

